DIALOGUE

A Face-cleansing

Miss Berry:

Hallo everybody! Today we'll talk about face-cleansing.

By the way, who is the girl near you, Anne?

Anne:

She is Monica. She is a friend of mine. She is Italian.

Miss Berry:

Hallo Monica. How are you?

Monica:

I'm fine, thanks.

Miss Berry:

O.K. Now we can begin our lesson. Come here Diana, you'll make the treatment. Would you like to be our model, Monica?

Monica:

Yes, of course!

Miss Berry:

Sit down, please. Diana, you can begin the treatment. What do you do first of all?

Diana:

First of all I cleanse the client's face with a cotton-flock dampened with azulene cleansing-milk, then I tone up and I examine the skin using a lens. Her skin is mixed with an oily central panel and normal sides.

Miss Berry:

And how is your skin, Diana?

Diana:

Mine is very dry.

Miss Berry:

All right. Go on. What do you use now?
